

HE'S AN ON-TIME GOD!

I've been suffering from attacks of fear ever since I had a car accident last year July. At times, I get into trouble, occasionally serious trouble to the extent that I wouldn't give you any examples. When I have these attacks, it cripples me and I may just lie down for hours on end. Last week Tuesday, I was at home suffering a fear attack, not doing anything but curling up in bed and imagining all kinds of horrid thoughts. I got up and went out into the living room and glanced over to the front door and saw a message I had posted on the door called "Close the Door on Fear." At the bottom of the message, I had written a sentence: "Follow your goals, follow your plans, when in fear and doubt." I had read this message many times since I put it up, but this time as I glanced at the message, instantly the spirit of fear left me and I started to rejoice, clap my hands, dance, twirl, sing. Some of you don't know what it's like being paralyzed with fear but thanks be to God, he delivered me.

So whenever you are believing God for fulfillment of his promises, keep praying, keep believing until it comes to pass for he's faithful.
